“O my people, I will open your graves and have you rise from them, and bring you back to the land of Israel.” That’s God’s promise to us from our first reading... He will overcome even the grave itself!

It seems to me that we live in a culture that tries not to think about the grave, to avoid the reality of death by looking away. It doesn’t change the reality, and I don’t believe it helps us deal with the reality of death. The Church’s clear discipline is that everyone who dies would have a grave, a place of burial, where our mortal remains are committed to the earth. Whether we’re buried in a casket, or in an urn after cremation, there is no provision for anything else ever to happen to a Catholic’s mortal remains. This discipline is rooted in the respect we show the mortal remains of a loved one, and also, I believe, in the practical wisdom that it is important for the living to have a public place so that graves can be visited.

Jesus comes to Bethany and finds that His friend Lazarus has died, and Lazarus’ family and friends are mourning his death. Jesus Himself weeps. He then exercises His divine power over even death itself, “Lazarus, come out!” And Lazarus came out, no longer dead, but alive.

The prophet’s promise is fulfilled. On the last day, Jesus will again cry out, and all who have died will rise from their graves. All will receive glorified bodies, and we hope to be among that number who will spend eternity in the joy of God’s presence, rather than in eternal separation from God. This fallen world is not our final home, we are strangers here, sojourners, on the way to a better place.

This great miracle sets the stage for what we will begin to celebrate next Sunday, when it is already Palm Sunday! During Holy Week we accompany the Lord during His Passion, so as to rejoice with Him in His Resurrection. Please plan now to participate fully in the Triduum!

We had a great Spring Campus Ministry Retreat last weekend at Bay Cliff, and I’m grateful to Fr. Jose Cherian who covered for me. It has been a joy to host St. Theresa Marie and Sr. Jhoan Marie from the Parish Visitors of Mary Immaculate. Sr. Theresa Marie is a 2001 Michigan Tech and St. Al’s alumna!

Take advantage of the penance services this week at St. Al’s (THIS Sunday) and St. Anne’s (THIS Monday)! There is no better preparation for the joy of Easter than to make a good confession!

There is a unique event coming up at St. Anne’s in Chassell: the Living Stations of the Cross on Wednesday of Holy Week, April 12th, 5:30 pm. Put it on your calendar!

Consider attending the Chrism Mass in Marquette this week on Thursday, April 6th, at 3 pm. It is a beautiful and grace-filled liturgy!

This Saturday, April 8th, we have our Spring Swing dance! This year IV, Cru, Concordia, and His House are all co-sponsoring... it’s going to be big! God Bless, Fr. Ben

Words of Wisdom from Bishop Frederic Baraga

KITCHI JAWENDAGOSIWIN:

“There is no greater joy in this world than to receive your Lord and God in Holy Communion.”

Are you or a loved one experiencing homosexual attractions and looking for answers?

Courage, an apostolate of the Catholic Church, ministers to persons with same-sex attractions and their loved ones. It also has an outreach called EnCourage which ministers to relatives, spouses, and friends of persons with same-sex attractions. Visit <http://www.couragerc.net> for more information.

Do you or does someone you love struggle with addiction?

Along with prayer, Confession, Eucharist, and spiritual counsel, our faith encourages us to seek tested healing resources, among them many good 12-step programs. Several such groups meet regularly at St. Al’s; to be referred to one that might be a good fit for you or your loved one, call 906-482-7778, or talk to Fr. Ben.
