From the desk of Fr. Ben... 6 August 2017

This past Sun. - Tues. I was on a great hike with Bishop John, Dcn. Tom Foye, & 4 young men who are open to discerning the priesthood. We had beautiful weather & a great hike through the Porcupine Mountains! We are truly blessed with our "outdoor" bishop, and with youth whose hearts are open to God!

On Friday, our Totus Tuus missionaries wrapped up their summer of service with weeks in Marquette, L'Anse, and Bark River. Again, a beautiful sign of young men and women open to serving God. I am humbled and filled with hope by their enthusiastic service! Please keep them in your prayers!

My warm thanks to everyone who is working so hard in St. Anne's Convent to get it ready! New carpet was delayed, but we hope to be all caught up by midweek. The three sisters will be arriving this Thursday... please give them a warm welcome! They will join us for our parish breakfast on Sunday!

All the old carpet and asbestos tile was cleared out of St. Al's church on Monday, and the tile main aisle is going in this morning as I type this (on Friday). The pews came out very quickly last Saturday, and I'm grateful to so many who came out to work on this. At this time it looks possible that we may be able to sell most of them as a group to a local church... I'll keep you informed as that develops. The new pews arrive on Monday, Aug. 14th, and I'll need 6 volunteer workers each day that week to help with installation. Please talk to me if you can help!

Fr. Tom Wantland, pastor of St. Al's from 1974 - 1984, has been visiting this week during Michigan Tech's Alumni Reunion. It has been a joy to show him all that is in the works, and to hear of his experiences here.

One final trip of the summer: this Sun. afternoon - Weds. I'll be leading our annual Seminarians' retreat for our 11 seminarians and a group of men open to the priesthood. We'll be at Mackinac Island and Marygrove. Then the men head back to seminary! Fr. Corbin will be covering. God Bless, Fr. Ben
