From the desk of Fr. Ben... 30 July 2017

Whew! Life is FULL! God's blessings (and opportunities to serve Him) are truly abundant. This past weekend I was blessed to accompany youth and chaperones from our community, from across the UP, 7 other priests of our diocese, and our bishop (6 busloads full!) to the Steubenville-on-the-Lake Conference on the campus of Carthage College in Kenosha, WI. It was an amazing weekend full of prayer, fellowship, LOTS of confessions, amazing speakers, etc. Ask Raphael and Elijah Soumis what it was like! We were joined by Marcel and Mathijs Dijkstra as well. God is very much alive in our youth!

The ride home went a little long when one of the buses broke down before we even loaded for the return journey! I had intended to head for the Companions of Christ the Lamb's wilderness retreat property near Paradise, MI of the for our annual Totus Tuus Retreat (for the missionaries who serve all summer) on Sunday evening... but in a rare moment of prudence I slept here and got an early start on Monday morning. These young adults are truly a beautiful example of God calling forth leaders from our midst, and it is a rich joy and privilege to work closely with them. We spent the week prayerfully discussing and processing the summer's joys, sorrows, and invitations. After having three teams the last two years, the hope is to have four next year (16 missionaries plus an intern), and hopefully to impact even more communities around the UP! (Tahquamenon Falls was ROARING!)

Work continues to get the rectory at St. Anne's ready to become St. Anne's Convent when Sisters Marcelyn, Jacqueline, and Carolee arrive. Due to some unforeseen delays in carpet replacement, it looks like their arrival may be delayed until August 8th. Thank you to everyone who's helping prepare!

We are also in the final phase of St. Al's work in the church. If you would like to adopt a pew, go to our parish website: mtucatholic.org/pew !!! Mass seating for the next two Sunday's will be on folding chairs. Pews go in the week of Aug. 14th.

I've almost survived the summer's events! This Sun. afternoon - Tues. afternoon I'll be on a discernment backpacking trip with Bishop John in the Porkies; next Sun. afternoon - Weds. will be the Seminarians' Retreat! And, then, it will be time to prepare to welcome the new students!
God Bless, Fr. Ben
