From the desk of Fr. Ben... 22 July 2018

Sr. Jacqueline, Rhen, and I spent the first part of this past week on the road for some St. Al's events in Minneapolis-St. Paul, Madison, and Milwaukee. We had nice groups gather for each evening cookout, and good weather! Praise God!

Fr. Dustin spent the week near Munising with the Catholic Summer Camp. As I type this, I haven't seen him yet to get a full report, but I hope it was a joyful and fruitful week there.

If you've been anywhere near St. Al's recently, there's a lot of work going on. The backlot we sold to the apartment complex next door is being paved, and the new garage we're building (to replace the old pole barn that was sold) is coming along as well. Never a dull moment!

This weekend, Fr. Dustin, Sr. Jacqueline, and I are on the road with a group of our youth and a bunch of other people from around the UP and the Midwest to go to the Steubenville-on-the-Lake Conference in Kenosha, on the campus of Carthage College. Please pray for all the youth, all the confessions, and the work of the Holy Spirit. The buses will be rolling north again on Sunday afternoon. Fr. Paul Manderfield is covering the weekend Masses.

This coming week Fr. Dustin and Sr. Jacqueline will be back, but I'll be with our Totus Tuus missionaries. We do a week of retreat together on the wilderness property owned and operated by the Companions of Christ the Lamb near Paradise, MI. After this week of fellowship and prayer, the Totus Tuus missionaries will have one more week of mission.

THANK YOU to all who participated in the Special Collection for Flood Relief! Between St. Al's alumni giving online, and the collections last weekend at St. Al's and St. Anne's, we have already raised over $9,400.00! If you would still like to support this need, please use one of the envelopes in the pews this weekend!

God Bless, Fr. Ben
